

THE WAITING ROOM

Worship in the Waiting

Human beings and music go together like peanut butter and jelly. You may not like peanut butter and jelly and you may not be musically inclined, but more than likely, you're still moved by music. Music plays an important role in our worship and worship plays an important role in our waiting.

This week, we will spend some time in the hymn book of ancient Israel. Psalms 113-118 and 136 were songs that were regularly sung during Israel's most prominent feasts. Each day, you will read through a psalm and do two things: Identify something worth celebrating from the psalm and then reflect on what sort of perspective that could bring to a season of waiting.

Day 1 Read Psalm 113

What can you celebrate from this psalm?

What sort of perspective does this psalm offer in a season of waiting?

Day 2 Read Psalm 114

What can you celebrate from this psalm?

What sort of perspective does this psalm offer in a season of waiting?

Day 3 Read Psalm 115

What can you celebrate from this psalm?

What sort of perspective does this psalm offer in a season of waiting?

THE WAITING ROOM

A MT. HOREB SERMON SERIES

Day 4 Read Psalm 116

What can you celebrate from this psalm?

What sort of perspective does this psalm offer in a season of waiting?

Day 5 Read Psalm 117

What can you celebrate from this psalm?

What sort of perspective does this psalm offer in a season of waiting?

Day 6 Read Psalm 118

What can you celebrate from this psalm?

What sort of perspective does this psalm offer in a season of waiting?

Day 7 Read Psalm 136

What can you celebrate from this psalm?

What sort of perspective does this psalm offer in a season of waiting?

THE WAITING ROOM

A MT. HOREB SERMON SERIES